

Cerberus Energy Cybersecurity Stack

When it comes to securing, monitoring, and testing key infrastructure in the Energy Industry, you need experts who specialize in Industrial Control Systems and distribution supply chains.

Ransomware Is Designed To Halt Operations

Protect Your Endpoints from Attack

Attackers know you will try to stop them from delivering ransomware to your endpoints. That's why they constantly evolve their tactics.

To stay ahead of attackers, you need:

- Artificial Intelligence
- Machine Learning
- Automation
- Human-led threat hunting
- And more...

View Your Network With the Eyes of an Attacker

No matter how hard you work to secure them, networks are prone to vulnerabilities.

Simulated attacks help you:

- Identify vulnerabilities
- Validate security controls
- Work hand-in-hand with ethical hackers
